

Eventers Educational & Informative Links

<http://www.useventing.com/education.php?section=calendar>

This link will take you to the USEA Educational Activities Calendar which includes ICP Workshops, Clinics, Officials' Training Programs, and schooling events

<http://www.youtube.com/user/USEventing>

You can always find interesting videos on You Tube, but the 'official' USEA You Tube site has a lot really good videos such as the USEA convention presentations, the Gold Cup series, the AEC's and instructional video on schooling 'coffin jumps' with Stephen Bradley and more.

<http://eventingnation.com>

Eventing Nation is a new site of everything eventing all over the world: results, blogs, reports on training sessions with Mark Phillips and all sorts of video clips, many of which that have nothing to do with eventing, but just plain fun.

<http://eventingradio.horseradionetwork.com/>

Every Thursday the Eventing Radio Show interviews some of the biggest and/or upcoming event riders in the world. Don't worry if you can't make the interview live; you can access all interviews on their website.

<http://www.barnmice.com/profiles/blog/list>

This link is to the blog section of the Barn Mice site. Be sure to scroll down to William Micklem's blog which is always very insightful as are Jane Savoie's. Although Jane's are mostly on dressage she often delves into sports psychology. Both a truly lovers of horses and are a must read for everyone.

<http://horseandcountry.tv/horse>

Wow this is a great site from the UK. Horse and Country has videos from some of the greatest competitions in the UK, clinics with Lucinda Green, and an interview with eventing greats Clayton and Lucinda Fredericks. There is so much on this site it may take you a little time to find all that may interest you.

If you are having trouble with any of the links; just copy and past the link