

CHPC Practice Written Test: C-3

Questions adapted from the Spokane Pony Club question bank database – with appreciation!

Quiz Competition

- Who decides how many rounds there will be at a Quiz rally?
 - the Technical Delegate
 - the Judge
 - the Ground Jury
 - the Organizer
- You are nearly twenty minutes late for the second round of Quiz competition. What happens?
 - assessed 10 penalty points
 - receive a zero for missed questions
 - both a and c are correct
 - disqualification
- For Quiz competitions, only one division changes between Regionals and Nationals. What changes?
 - Junior D's must be at least 10 for Championships
 - Senior D's must be at least 13 for Championships
 - Junior C/B's must be 14 years of age or less for Championships
 - Senior C/B's must be 15 years of age and up for Championships
- In Quiz competitions, how long do you, a C competitor, have before you must begin answering a question?
 - 10 seconds
 - 15 seconds
 - 20 seconds
 - 30 seconds
- What is the order of appeal in the event of a disagreement over a Quiz response?
 - Ground Jury, Technical Delegate, Judge
 - Judge, Technical Delegate, Ground Jury
 - Technical Delegate, Judge, Ground Jury
 - Technical Delegate, Ground Jury, Judge
- How many points will your team earn for each correct portion of a locally or regionally designed question?
 - 1
 - 2
 - point value (and time limits) may vary as appropriate to the question
 - none; all questions must be nationally designed
- You find the playground equipment so fascinating that you arrive nearly ten minutes late for the first round of Quiz competition. What will happen to you?
 - 10 penalty points
 - 25 penalty points
 - elimination
 - disqualification
- For Quiz competitions, this is Jeremy's last year as a Junior C. Next year he must compete as a Senior C. How old is he right now?
 - 12
 - 13
 - 14
 - 15

9. Regions have "R.I.C.'s" or pronounced "ricks". What is a R.I.C.?
- regional intervention counselor
 - registered internal controls
 - regional instructional coordinator
 - rally instructional coordinator
10. How many essential fatty acids are there?
- two
 - four
 - six
 - twelve
11. Which parasites do the most damage to the blood vessels and internal organs of your pony?
- ascarids
 - bots
 - pinworms
 - strongles
12. A dry, gray or yellow discharge from the rectum is a sign of what type of parasite?
- ascarids
 - bots
 - pinworms
 - strongles
13. What is another name for canine teeth?
- incisors
 - premolars
 - wolf teeth
 - tushes
14. At what age does a pony usually have all of its permanent teeth?
- 2 yrs.
 - 5 yrs.
 - 7 yrs.
 - 9 yrs.
15. Why should you not use peroxide, alcohol, iodine, Vaseline or strong antiseptics on wounds?
- horse may kick or rear from pain
 - you should never use anything stronger than Betadine without consulting a vet
 - all of these can be toxic to some horses
 - can damage the tissue and may interfere with healing
16. In reference to wounds, what is the common term for "excessive granulation"?
- laminitis
 - proud flesh
 - azoturia
 - laceration

17. How long after an inoculation is it before a horse develops enough antibodies for immunity?
- 2-3 days
 - 4-6 days
 - 2-3 weeks
 - 4-6 weeks
18. What is the protein released by the muscles during an episode of azoturia?
- myoglobin
 - hemoglobin
 - thiamine
 - folacin
19. Symptoms are very important as they often help us save the life of our beloved horses. What of the following is NOT a symptom for Equine encephalomyelitis?
- fever and excitability
 - depression and drowsiness
 - coughing or wheezing
 - walking in circles
20. How long is it appropriate to longe an unfit horse?
- 2-3 minutes max.
 - 5-10 minutes max.
 - 12-15 minutes max.
 - 20-25 minutes max.
21. Which is more important in performing a safety check - the safety of the tack or teaching the member?
- safety of the tack
 - teaching the member
 - both are equally important
 - neither -- the safety of the pony is most important
22. Why does a horse "quid"?
- to protect a sore place in his mouth
 - from boredom
 - to relieve stress
 - he has a parasite infection
23. What usually fatal organism is lurking in the dirt of your barn, waiting for a chance to infect your poorly inoculated horse?
- streptococcus equi
 - clostridium tatani
 - rhinopneumonitis
 - e-coli
24. What specific organ in the body do VEE, EEE and WEE infect?
- the brain
 - the heart
 - the lungs
 - the large intestine

25. Which of the following is NOT a correct rein aid for longeing?

- a. open or leading
- b. indirect rein
- c. giving the longe
- d. withholding the longe