

2012 Rally Study Guide - Show Jumping

SHOW JUMPING - 2012 USPC SHOW JUMPING RULE BOOK
Three fences in a row, separated by one or two strides is called a ____.		Article 46.1
True or False: a running martingale may be worn at any level of competition.		Article 15.3
How many faults is a knockdown of an obstacle?		Article 62
True or False: Competitors may warm up without a coach in the ring.		Article 9.2
A round that has no jumping or time faults is called a round		Article 28.1
Do you have to use a bridle with a bit?		Article 15.1
During your round your stirrup leather breaks. What happens?		Article 24.1
How long do you have to cross the start line after the judge gives the audible signal to begin?		Article 41.4
An equitation round cannot be which round?		Article 27.2
You are given the time limit. How do you determine the time allowed?		Article 58.4
If the order of go is determined by a drawing, who draws for the team?		Article 7
How many faults is the 2 nd knockdown anywhere on course?		Article 63.4
What must all solid fences (coops, walls) have?		Article 42.3
As you are jumping, the red flag should be to your right or left?		Article 40.2

You begin the course before the judge gives the audible Signal. What is the penalty?		Article 63.13
What is the maximum length of a whip in Show Jumping?		Article 15.5
How many levels of SJ competition are there?		Article 29.1
What is 'rapping'?		Article 20.1
Bev exceeded time allowed by 10 seconds. What is her penalty?		Article 60.1
In what round is the riders position judged?		Section V, Part 8
What is a 'false ground line'?		Article 43.2
A spectator called out to Bev that she was off course. What is the penalty?		Article 63.22
Name three disobediences		Article 56
True or False: A rider may use a Western stock type saddle in Show Jumping.		Article 15.1
The Time Limit is calculated by multiplying the _____ by 2.		Article 58.4
Your pony runs out at the second fence of a triple combination. What must you do?		Article 46.4
In 2012 Championships will have how many rounds of Show Jumping?		2012 Newsletter
True or False: Correct attire (either formal or informal) is required for all three rounds at a one-day Show Jumping rally.		Article 14.2

